A Heart Full Of Love

I am longing for a heart full of love I'm giving it a start everyday big things, little things ÷ get in the way

oh, she's been broken
but at least I'm aware
she's still there
so please, please beware
she needs time and care

my heart is not a homeless place I am not a hopeless ÷ a hopeless case

but at least I'm aware

There Is A House

my swimming pool is called the ocean my garden is the fields and woods my friends are every man and woman and every street's my neighborhood there is a house, there is a house, there is a house that feels like home

and till I feel it till I feel it I will roam

I know this ain't reality
when I walk out the door but if we really want it
this could be what we're headed for the sky above will be my ceiling the ground beneath will be my floor all the emotions that I'm feeling are washed away here on the shore

What Love Is

I read about it, I felt about it still I'm quite confused in doubt about it, I feel I used her and in her name I've been used heard songs about it, that sang they knew and I wanted to believe seems I'd rather have, illusions rule me and then feel deceived

is she just a legend a clever fairy tale I feel she's real but still my skin looks pale

oh I wanna find out what love is
oh I wanna find out how it feels

now could it be, I'm too caught up to read between her lines so when you ask me, how I am I'll just say: I feel fine if I'm locked inside me feels like eternity could she be the key

Small Steps

I look at the mountain seems it looks back at me and says: I'm way too big to climb I'm not your cup of tea I feel small and helpless a tiny spec of dust I'm better off resigning and forget my wanderlust

this feeling I have grown
that doesn't mean it stays
so many other ways
to see that view
small steps will get there too

I will tell the mountain that it's just how I was taught never to think bigger than the cage where you were caught now I walk a rocky road to a new reality in my dreams I saw the mountain bending down for me

Wish You

I wish you a brighter day I wish you a lighter shade of grey I wish you shoulders that feel light in the morning

I wish you hands to rest your head no demons at night in bed clean water to quench your thirst but you'll have to go there first the guts to speak out loud
that you can't get out

I wish you that inner fire igniting your desire to visit that lonely place and face that open space for once speak out loud

I wish you all

Two Souls

here we are, two distant stars that orbit round a long lost love eyes closed tight, they've seen enough today could you spare some time, I've got a dime for coffee and delicious cake for anything that man can bake for two souls that long to be one two souls that long to be one

with me

a broken dream and a broken arrow this battlefield will lift us off our shadow lift us off our shadow to keep the faith, walk on and wait we never really closed the door we figured there'd be something more for us as we cursed and cried, as we lived and died we chose to turn around and stop and dig in what we've covered up

I Know What You Want

we stare into the mirror wonderin' who we are if we take these steps gently they might take us far

I know what you want, my love
I know what I want
can we mix it all together
cause together could mean less or more will I keep on guessing what my yearning heart is worth is it a match made in heaven or a mess made here on earth

I know what you want, my love

I know what you want and I want it too

True To Me

well I can't wait
can't wait anymore but can I be sure they say it's not too late well it never is but I don't want to miss myself and live my life but half a new beginning I said it all before

it's not just words I'm ready to explore how does it feel like I'm on my own

and carry these stones around but is it real or just an emotion
that sets it in motion
so strange
it's time to change

how can I give you
what I haven't got I first must feel this love in my blood

and true to me is what I'm going to be no matter what they offer my heart will show me what I need to see and what I will discover in my new energy

Welcome To The World

out of nowhere
here on earth
it's the miracle of birth
call it blessing
or destiny
call it an act of love for all to see

welcome, welcome

you decide the steps you take what kind of world
you wish to make growing up
is what you'll do
to discover becoming you

to be here now
be with us now

Rosie

today is a day with layers of clay and my feet standing still with a beat shaking right to the hill of my soul touching some whole part of what I can be
it's strange to me

it's a new dance
with black and with white
and with Rosie
Rosie, you see I have to let go
of something so old
that it can only go in peace

today is day, got drifted away but now putting it down by giving it up
I am looking inside
seeing it right
where it always was it's only because

there is a wind blowing 'round this hill
there is a thing going
'round and it fills

and it feels like home

On My Way To You

in the valley of footsteps through the woods of need over the border of childhood making friends in the city of greed looking for cool clean water in the river of rain and I climb the hillside in the open eye of the hurricane

I am on my way to you
I am only passing through
and the landscape and all the sights that I see shed a new light on the distance between you and me

all across the flatland all the signs I pass in the fields of forsaken I lay down in the evening grass over burning bridges under soothing skies I'm on the road to freedom
I don't know but I feel where it lies

I am on my way to you
shed a new light on the distance between you and me

Here I Stand Before You

after all these years
and everything we need is here and I can't close my eyes no more and I am losing the disguise I wore more naked than before

together evermore
side by side

and all that's been the thin line that we walk upon is where we keep our laundry clean and I try not to fight what comes and goes the tears I've cried have washed the road clean long ago

The Mainstream

I was caught in the mainstream of doing what you're told to do wherever I was I know not much of me was shining through
of taking the easy way out not giving much thought to all that I bought I sold myself somehow

at least I see - it's getting better to some degree - it's getting better
to make the most of me
will set me free

am I still caught in the mainstream of keeping inside what you feel of holding on tight with all of your might with your heart locked and sealed to stay away from the mainstream of measuring success by the job that you've got and if you're looking hot and if not then you're worth less

I Wanna Know About You

do you wanna know me
do you wanna know 'bout me something goes to show in the way our rivers flow start out wild and slow down gradually finally flow together to the sea

I know my lips were sealed in the battle to be real the fingers that are pointed made me see in the end they all point back at me there's something to gain here without doubt maybe we've got something to find out in each other

The High Road
does it really matter if I remember or not is it a secret I knew and forgot it belongs to the seagulls it belongs to the crows it travels in silence wherever it goes

is this the high road
or the low road in disguise
it shows in my eyes
the water will rise

all that we have lived through all that we have shared all that we discovered, we're still unaware of the biggest picture of the smallest shame of the greatest love that carries your name

Forever And A Day

then I opened up my eyes to catch the daylight until I had had my fill and fell back in the night everything I am and all that I'm living all my ups and downs are flowing like the tide and I feel it's getting better but I fear it's going wrong

now can I embrace my demons with this song is this the golden age that we are digging up through the diesel and the dust and the layers of clay looking for a higher love to last a lifetime

yearning for forever

the wave is a part of the ocean

let it flow

Carried Away

I'm carried away, I'm carried away
I'm carried away by the sound
I'm carried away to a much better place it takes me to higher ground

I'm walking on the water it doesn't want me to drown my smile feels contagious and I don't need to play the clown I float a couple of feet above the floor gravity don't want me down

I'm carried away, I'm carried away
where the shadows disappear in another place, I am somewhere else and still here

I sing my words in colors I'm in a symphony
it feels as if the others are all connected to me the melody unties these chains and the rhythm sets me free

I'm carried away, I'm carried away

I'm still here, I'm still here

Earth

I am walking on, I am walking on I am walking on, my feet are feeling you are hard as rock, you are hard as rock you are hard as rock and soft as sand you are telling us, you are telling us you are telling us, I want to listen we are part of, we are part of
we are part of you

we're dining at your table we're living on your floor you give us all you are, so why do we take more

I want to feel you
I want to heal you

you gave us rhythm gave us groove inviting us to dance I feel your heart I feel your beat now it's time to move time to move

you are feeding us, you are feeding us you are feeding us, but are we grateful you are showing us, you are showing us you are showing us, now can we see

I want to feel you

oh mother we feel you

we're a part of you
oh mother we love you

A Little Closer

if I move a little closer close enough to touch would you smile and open up or would it be too much
would it feel good to give in
to the hunger of the skin

our bodies come alive
this is what it feels like
to take a deep, deep dive
in love
we finally arrive
to live the invitation
live the celebration of our love

closer to your heart would we grow together more or would we grow apart when I move a little closer to connect to you to feel what it's really like to walk in each others shoes

in love

Under My Skin

on the outside I'm not shy on the outside I'm an easy going guy but if you would ask me twice you would probably look right through these eyes I found a way to stand upright to pretend I travel light act as if there is no load and this steep mountain is a huge wide open road

but in this time of day when darkness finds it's way and these walls keep closing in

is it just me and you or could it be that this old world is crazy too where true love is hard to find and if you can't keep up they'll leave you far behind and the people that I meet seem so happy on their feet seems they live so easily or do they think the same of me

mixed feelings come out to play

Never Over

no this is never over
no this is never gone
long after we're away from here

this is something bigger but just as small as you and me inviting us to step on board and leave the shore and sail for more to whatever the sky wants us to see

no this is never through the light of love will find a way and pour all over you

the reason why we do this same reason why we can't we're all here at the same time and when we disappear we will still be here and I'm happy that I don't understand

I Am Where I Am

I am sorry I can't get out of this I am in the mud, I am in the mist and you are standing there you're asking me how how is your day

you're asking me - are you, are you okay
and I won't pretend

and I don't want to bring this on you and I don't want to bring this on
and yes, I want to get out of this old cave but you, please just go, I'll be okay I'm shown the way

you told me my mud was too much for you
you told me your sparkles were gone with my blues you said it with a dark clear voice you asked me deeply - what is your choice you said - I do respect you with the pain you bear I see you try and you are so fair but here is a door let's open and see something more

In Circles

I lie on my back and I look at the clouds in the sky chasing each other and changing their form passing by as if they are hunted as if they must hurry all day afraid to be caught they are raining their teardrops away

I know if this is what I see somewhere there is a raincloud in me am I moving, running, going in circles like a dog chasing it's tail
blowing wind in my own sails

I am able to slow down and feel why I do what I do there are walls I can break down and walls that I can see through far beyond what I can see there's a place in the distance and it's waiting for me

Both Sides Of The Door

this is the place and this is the time this is where we kneel for the love that we share and the scars that it bears is this still love what I feel parallel roads parallel lives that go together still as we climb the stairs of our love affair do you still think we always will

can you still sense
two hearts beating
or can't you hear it anymore
quietly screaming
on both sides of the door

lend me your eyes lend me your hands and hold me tight once more as far as I can see
there is no guarantee I'm sure I can't be sure

on both sides of the door, what did we close it for

Really See You

I've been looking at your world I wonder how it feels there the more I gaze and I stare the stranger it becomes

would I be in danger would I feel a stranger if I walked through that door

what does it take to really see you how does it feel to meet your soul

how does it feel to lose control
how does it feel to lose

I want to know your world in language and in gesture I'm hoping it so pure I'm curious and scared

but what about the past the pieces of my heartbreak of what I give and I take and what I'm holding back

Every Act Of Love

raises the vibration of all the energy of the universe all that we forgive makes a better place to live a small miracle occurs

ooh every act of love

love is always free so what is between you and me if it's tied it's something else there's no right or wrong it may take short or long to find our way back to the well

Keep It To Myself

feels like falling into the abyss and I am scared, I don't know what this is and I'm used to blaming my other half can I try to keep it, keep it to myself

I know what it feels like to be thrown away to not be heard in what I have to say to see the book of wisdom stuck on the shelf will I take it out on you, or keep it to myself

to own your own emotion
till it never ever comes 'round again it never comes 'round again whenever I'm angry, whenever I'm sad whenever I'm longing for what I never had now in my silence it rings a bell

never comes 'round again

I'll try to keep it, keep it to myself

Better Not To Talk

it's better not to talk and let the silence speak somehow
and feel what must be felt right now I know a lot of reasons why I'm right this wounded heart is still prepared to fight

when we don't listen anyway
cause really what I want to say is not about the words that leave my mouth it's all about a soul that is in doubt and I don't want to wait until the world gives up that's just not who I am I cherish what I hold and I won't let it drop cause I do give a damn about us, about our plan

when the words get in the way of who we really are behind the silly games we play and after all I think we both agree we're better off on our feet than on our knees

Nature

I touch the earth, paint the sky like a white, white cloud I fly I feed the wind, I climb the tree I sing the birds and taste the sea

I sit and dance out on the grass as the seasons come to pass winter, spring, summer and fall

shower in sunshine, bathe in the rain on top of mountains and on the plains I celebrate the river wide I move along with the tide to sit and dance out on the grass that the seasons come to pass

Take This Pain

it's fading away
in slow motion
end of the day
beginning of night
it's between me
and the ocean
and all the waves
that break inside

make it rain
make it what it's always been

to taste the salt
of the water
to touch the sand
and feel what's mine
and to drop off
what belongs to others
shed some light on where the sun don't shine
